As an equal opportunity employer our aim is to create a working environment in which the abilities of all employees are utilized to the full. Equal opportunity is about good employment practices and efficient use of our most valuable asset, our employees. Every manager and employee has personal responsibility for the implementation of this policy. We will not discriminate unfairly, either directly or indirectly, against any individual in matters of recruitment, dismissal, selection for redundancy or promotion, transfer, development or training, pay and, benefits, facilities, procedures and all other aspects of employment.

Translink will treat all job applicants and employees fairly and equally, regardless of their gender, including gender reassignment, sexual orientation, religion or belief, marital or civil partnership status, having or not having dependants, age or perceived age, race, (including colour, nationality, ethnic or national origins, being an Irish Traveller) or disability.

These will be subject to regular assessment by the Director of Human Resources in order to examine how they affect under-represented groups and to identify measures to improve their effectiveness.

Translink seeks to promote a harmonious working environment and atmosphere in which no employee feels under threat or intimidated and will eliminate any conditions, procedures and individual behaviour that can lead to discrimination even where there was no intent to discriminate.

Any employee who believes that he/she has been treated unfairly within the scope of this Policy may raise the matter through our Dignity at Work Policy or the normal grievance procedure, as appropriate. All complaints of discrimination are dealt with seriously, promptly and confidentially. However, employees wishing to make a complaint to a tribunal will normally be required to raise their complaint under our internal Dignity at Work Policy or our internal grievance procedure first. Every effort will be made to ensure that employees who make complaints will not be victimised. Any complaint of victimization will be dealt with seriously, promptly and confidentially. Victimisation will result in disciplinary action and may warrant dismissal.

1. Introduction

To realise the aims of its Equal Opportunities Policy Translink is committed to developing and applying relevant supporting employment policies and practices to seek to ensure the promotion of equality.

Every day people with disabilities face barriers that most non-disabled people would never think about. These barriers are not just physical, but can be psychological caused by negative assumptions, attitudes and reactions by non-disabled people. With a major change in attitudes and small practical changes to the working environment, more people who may be currently excluded could be engaged and included within Translink. Accordingly through our Code of Practice we aim to reduce the barriers that prevent people with disabilities from succeeding and thereby helping them to maximize their full potential in the area of access to and within employment.

2. Scope and Definition

The definition of disability within the legislation is:

"someone who has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities."

3. Aims and Objectives

This Code of Practice sets out the development and implementation standards of good practice for disabled people, as follows:

Recruitment, Selection and Promotion
Translink will take steps to ensure that people with disabilities who apply for jobs will know that they will receive a fair and equal opportunity. Translink will make reasonable adjustments to ensure our employment arrangements or premises do not put a disabled person at a substantial disadvantage compared with a non-disabled person.

Translink is therefore committed to:

a) Employ people with disabilities on the basis of merit and in jobs suited to their aptitudes abilities and qualifications;

b) Shortlist any disabled applicant who meets the essential requirements of the post;

c) Collaborate with the various disablement agencies with a view to seeking advice and support in recruiting and retaining disabled people.

d) Use the Employers for Disability NI job bulletin board to promote Translink and refer potential applicants to the careers section on the Translink website, thereby encouraging applications from people with disabilities.

e) Make practical arrangements to assist the interview process, e.g. modifying testing procedures, providing an interpreter.

f) Introduce a Disability Placement Scheme for the training and potential employment of disabled people.

g) Ensure staff involved in the recruitment process are properly trained in matters of equal opportunities including matters of disability.

h) Ensure that employees with disabilities are given equal consideration for promotion according to their abilities.

Training and Development

Translink undertakes to:

a) Ensure that people with disabilities have the same opportunity as other staff to develop their full potential within the organization
b) Become involved in work experience, training and education/industry placements

c) Raise awareness of disability throughout the organization, particularly through its “Dignity at Work Programme”.

Translink will ensure the integration of disabled staff into the workforce by:

b) Providing accommodation and/or equipment which is suitable for the needs of the disabled employee.

Staff Becoming Disabled

Employees who are disabled or become disabled in the course of their employment should inform Translink about their disability.

Translink undertakes to consult with employees who are disabled in their present employment. When deciding what reasonable adjustment can be made, consideration will be given to the cost involved and the practicality of making the adjustment. Some examples which Translink will consider making for employees (or potential employees) include:

- Adjustment to premises

Translink monitors its applicants, workforce and the effectiveness of this Code of Practice regularly. Equality monitoring reports are prepared by the Human Resources Division and action points determined by the Executive Team.

Complaints

Translink recognize fully the right of disabled people to complain about discrimination should it occur. Employee complaints should, in the first instance, be made under the established grievance procedure, to the manager in charge of the workplace.
